

March 7, 1974

PRESIDENT: LB 755 is advanced to E & R Initial. The next bill is 782. Clerk will read the title.

CLERK: LB 782. (read)

PRESIDENT: Senator Luedtke do you wish to speak to the amendments. 782?

SENATOR LUEDTKE: Senator Fellman can just as well take the amendments, too. But you are going to have to explain the bill amost to explain the amendments.

PRESIDENT: Senator Fellman, do you care to take the amendments.

SENATOR FELLMAN: Yes, there's committee amendments, and there are amendments also, page 879 of the Journal.

CLERK: My apologies. Those are amendments to the committee amendments.

SENATOR FELLMAN: Right, I move the adoption of the amendments. Can they be done together. The whole set of amendments be moved together.

CLERK: No the committee amendments to the standing committee amendments should be adopted.

SENATOR FELLMAN: First, and then the ones in the Journal.

CLERK: Yes, Senator Fellman, the amendments..your amendments to the standing committee amendments should be considered adopted on page 879.

SENATOR FELLMAN: Mr. President, I move the adoption of the amendments printed on page 879 of the Journal. These amendments together with the amendments in the committee amendments are... clarify the bill, very simply what this does, is first of all it applied only to Douglas County. Secondly, it separates the corrections facility outside of the jurisdiction of the sheriff, and creates the Douglas County Board of Corrections, which is the same as the Douglas County Board, charges them with the hiring of a professionally competent Director of Corrections to supervise the corrections facility. This carries out the recommendations of National thinkers and organizations in the area of corrections, by separating the function of police, and policing and law enforcement which is done by the Sheriff from the function of correction. Mr. President, I move the adoption of the amendments in the Journal on page 879.

PRESIDENT: Senator Carpenter, you have your light on. Do you wish to speak to these..to the Fellman amendment? Senator Carpenter? Your light is on, do you wish to speak to the Fellman amendment. To the committee amendment? Senator Schmidt, did you wish to speak? Are you ready to vote on this amendment. It will take a voice vote. Those in favor of the amendment, say aye, those opposed say no. The amendment is carried.

CLERK: Mr. President, the standing committee amendments as amended need to be adopted.

PRESIDENT: Senator Fellman.
